Simply a good time!. OOH OOOH AAAAAAH AAH. I still have probably dozens, if not hundreds of hours of content in this game. It is increasingly complex, fun, and sometimes totally frustrating and feels impossible. So, yeah, it's a great tower defense game that has almost limitless content, it seems, especially with randomized maps and user made maps. Get it.. I played for a while. I loved that it was exclusively HO only, no adventuring or other puzzles. However, the images are barely clear enough to make out what you're looking for. I got annoyed rather quickly. Avoid unless at steep discount and only for hardcore HO fans. I will say I got my money's worth as I only paid about $1.. I suck hard at this game, while my wife is a goddess at it. Still, it's fun. Think fast! Woops, too late. You shot that colored ball at the wrong spot, or hesitated a moment too long, or something. Or you just plain failed to do enough complicated things to get the balls to move backward a bit, often enough to avoid losing (as the levels get harder and harder).

This game makes my head explode, but it is very well designed. Simple and fun, with plenty of challenges.. Simple Moblie Port, mouse controls are a bit off but for $5(on sale) it is dumb and addictive. I have spent a bit of time playing it while playing other games, until I found that it only saves games locally. I was on a trip I found that I needed to start over is when I decided to quit. Other then that pick it up on a Sale or Free on Mobile.. I absolutely admire Aldin Dynamics for releasing this free as a promotional press kit demo. I would absolutely support them in their future projects. This is the sort of behavior devs need to clue in on. Get your name out there, a fanbase, before you slop together a techdemo charging premium rates pi$$ing off everyone.

Can't wait to see their future projects.. First and second level were decent but factory level was nothing but enemy spam down a close quarters corridor. my gun stopped shooting while i was still alive and enemies spawn way too close. second or third round of enemies spawn while youre strill trying to get rid of the first round of enemies down a completely different angle. i feel like there was no level design in the factory mission, it was just an obnoxious amount of enmies and blood covering my entire screen so i couldnt tell what was going on. it was too hard to aim for headshots. shotgun pops up out of nowhere and when i ran out of ammo my assault rifle didnt come back. Please construct actual level design and appropriate pacing, lower the gore effects, and fix the bugs with the gun switching/vshooting if you want this game to sell.. no development and no content. enough said.. If you like these old school scrolling shooters like Darius check this out, very few cheep deaths, lots of weapons to choose from, lots of replay value, very fun.

This is an extremely gimped version of EF2000. No heads-down displays, inferior UI - it's basically an arcade version of that game. If you're looking for EF2000, keep looking because you will be disappointed by this game.. This game is a huge rip off. It advertises three levels of computer difficulty and there's not even an option to play the computer. It is strictly multiplayer. You can play a friend on your computer and the board spins around when it's the other person's turn. Or, you can play online. I cannot believe Steam would allow such misleading advertising for their software. Unbelievable. Don't get this game. It's hot garbage..
This review is for The Smuggler DLC only*

A solid unit that is edging OP status, especially if used properly and aligned with the right skill sets.

The DLC bundle I purchased included the Globethrower and the Smuggler (this), and the price is fairly reasonable especially while it is on sale. The DLC included two level 7 smugglers with purple gear and free unassigned skill points.

The Smuggler units can hold their own, lock down an area and as of late has been earning MVP awards for doing the most damage and killshots.. SPOILER:

I thought this movie was awesome and here's why. The way that it's produced or shot this movie is so 'raw'. You feel present in the moment. You can feel the stress, tension, the clock counting down but you can also feel the creativity, positive energy. I'm impressed by how professional everyone remained during a 48 hour game jam. Everyone got along and they remained good sports through the end. As a gamer and a game developer I felt like I was there. This is like a Cinderella story for game developers. I mean these guys got to pitch to the big dogs and they got contracts! What better outcome could any of us want... Congrats to those dudes!! Great movie. I highly recommend.

Spoiler: I do wish that PlayStation and Oculus would've allowed cameras in to watch the pitch but I understand why they didn't.. Good attempt.. but was expecting better graphics and it seems a little laggy at some parts of the game. I.e. when I slashed at an opponent, there's like a 0.5sec lag before I see the opponent got damaged. waste of money
